The TEF will host a special program, Survivors Speak, on Wednesday, April 3rd, from 1:00 – 2:30 p.m. at Old Turnpike Middle School in Tewksbury Township. Parents and members of the local community are encouraged to attend this important and inspiring event.*

Survivors Speak is a program developed by the Holocaust Council of Greater MetroWest as part of their outreach to schools. The program consists of two speakers who are eyewitnesses to the Holocaust (survivors, liberators, POWs) and a moderator. The speakers, chosen for the diversity of their experiences during the Holocaust, will address 5-8th grade students and share their experiences. A question and answer session will follow. This program will serve as the culminating event for the Holocaust and Genocide Studies curriculum that is offered to students in grades 5-8th.

This event is sponsored by the TEF mini grant program which provides funding for novel ideas from faculty. Catherine Zisk, 8th grade history teacher at Old Turnpike Middle School, who received the award to support this guest lecture, said: "This interactive conversation is extremely important to our students because it allows them to explore survivors' experiences firsthand and to gain a deeper sense of empathy for individuals who prevailed with such courage and strength."

The TEF strives to provide students with exceptional learning opportunities. This program represents a unique opportunity as this is likely the last generation to be in the presence of Holocaust survivors. We thank the speakers for sharing their experiences with our community and congratulate Mrs. Zisk for the award.

*For security purposes, please call (908) 439-2010 if you plan to attend. We hope to see you there!

Mark Schonwetter was born in Brzostek, Poland where he lived on a farm with his parents, younger sister and uncle. When he was six, the Nazis invaded Poland and soon arrived in their hometown. His father, Israel, was the leader of the town's Jewish Community and was frequently questioned at police headquarters.

PETER FLEISCHMANN

Peter Fleischmann was born in Prague, the capitol of Czechoslovakia. In 1938 the Nazis invaded and he lived under their rule from age 11 to 14. In 1941, Peter and his parents were able to leave. After a harrowing journey that began in March and included rescue by a righteous upstander, he and his family arrived in New York in June.

We hope you will join us on April 3rd at 1:00 pm as we welcome both Mark and Peter to share their stories of survival and hope.

In Case You Missed It...

The 1st grade "Parade of Nations." sponsored by the TEF, was a HUGE success! This six-day program helps first graders learn folk dances representing a country or culture while also learning about history, geography, music, and traditional attire. On the last day of the program, 1st grade students performed various cultural dances, songs and rituals from all over the world and they did great!

Coming Soon . . .the next edition of the Tewksbury Education Foundation Newsletter will hit your inbox in May.
